POLICY

Although the organization does not provide protective services, it is the policy of McIntosh Trail CSB that clinical staff will assist the consumer, the family, and the court in the determination of the need for protective services and make recommendations based on assessment findings to the appropriate local Department of Family and Children Services.

During the intake/admission process, as indicated, the topic of protective services is discussed with the family and is documented in the clinical record.

Listed below are the telephone numbers for local Department of Family and Children Services and for Child Protective Services which are available to all clinical staff.
