POLICY

It is the policy of McIntosh Trail CSB to provide the scope of services as stated in the contract with the Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Disabilities Services. These services are available to ages 5 and up and all disability groups as appropriate to their needs and the Community Service Board capability to provide the care in accordance with our mission.

It is recommended that the priority target population is the population fitting the Consumer Eligibility requirements of the above mentioned contract.

Services are provided under the policies and procedures of McIntosh Trail Policy and Procedures Manual.
